Proceedings regarding the Stipulation of Settlement and Amended Stipulation of Settlement ("Settlement") in the above-referenced action have been regularly conducted before this Court, the Honorable Christina A. Snyder, presiding. The Court, inter alia, fully considered plaintiff's Motion filed March 31, 2008 for Preliminary Approval of Settlement, Provisional Certification of Settlement Class, Approval of Class Notice, Claim Form and Form of Request for Exclusion from Settlement, and to Set Hearing for Final Approval of Settlement, including the [Proposed] Order of Preliminary Approval of Settlement, Certification of Settlement Class and Appointment of Class Counsel, [Proposed] Notice of Preliminary Approval of Settlement and Final Approval Hearing and Right to be Excluded from the Settlement and Claim Form, and [Proposed] Order of Final Approval of Settlement And Dismissing Action, amended on or about June 3, 2008, and, on April 7, 2008 and June 4, 2008 granted preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certified the settlement class and appointed the firm of Harris & Ruble, and Alan Harris, Jonathan Ricassa, and David Zelinski of that firm as counsel for the settlement class. Further, after determining that the proposed Notice of Preliminary Approval of Settlement and Final Approval Hearing and Right to be Excluded from the Class and Claim Form met all constitutional and statutory requirements, including due process, the Court ordered that said notice and claim form be mailed in a manner in accordance with all constitutional and statutory requirements, including due process, and in accordance with the Court's Order granting preliminary approval of the Settlement. Said notice was mailed to all Class Members on or about June 6, 2008, and the Court received no objections to the proposed Settlement. Subsequently, and in accordance with the Court's Order of Preliminary Approval and Notice of Preliminary Approval and Final Approval Hearing and Right to be Excluded from the Settlement, the Court conducted a further hearing on
